Beachfront living with Captivating views

Premium elevated beachfront positions are extremely hard to come by and this quality renovated home will please the most fastidious buyer. It's elevated position provides captivating white water views that are on show from the entire open plan living space, outdoor entertaining deck as well as from the master bedroom, but when the sun goes down, the rear deck is the perfect platform to watch the sun go down and be enchanted as the lights of the Mooloolaba skyline come to life.

There are few properties that capture the essence of beachside living with such a focus on relaxed living capturing the natural beauty on both sides. Inspection will not disappoint, but be quick as homes like this are in hot demand.
